LUKE & ROXANNE TIMMER

We are in support of the Christian University for Australia simply because we can see that God is at work in this – and it's exciting to be a part of what our great God is doing! We can see opportunity for a gathering of believers, no matter the denomination, and an avenue for the Word of God to be shared throughout this region and this nation.